CONSEIL DE RECHERCHES EN SCIENCES HUMAINES

August 1999/août 1999

AU COEUR DU PROCESSUS D'OCTROI DES SUBVENTIONS DU CRSH

La présente publication énumère les nouvelles subventions accordées par le Conseil de recherches en sciences humaines au cours de l'année financière 1998-1999.

Le CRSH attribue ses subventions selon un processus de sélection indépendant et très concurrentiel, faisant appel à des comités d'experts qui évaluent les propositions de recherche et recommandent les projets à financer. L'examen par les pairs est à la base d'un système juste et efficace grâce auquel seules les meilleures propositions reçoivent un appui financier du CRSH.

Chaque année, les agents des programmes du CRSH recourent à près de 8 000 chercheurs du Canada et de l'étranger pour rédiger des évaluations de chacune des demandes de subventions présentées. Leurs évaluations sont soumises aux comités de sélection pour les aider à décider quelles demandes méritent d'être subventionnées.

Les évaluateurs et les membres des comités de sélection du CRSH sont des chercheurs actifs qui ont fait leurs preuves dans leur discipline ou domaine et qui sont au fait de la recherche en général.

Plus de 124 chercheurs font partie de l'un ou l'autre des 17 comités chargés d'évaluer les demandes de subventions ordinaires et stratégiques présentées aux concours annuels nationaux du CRSH.

Cette année, les comités de sélection ont examiné un total de 1 690 demandes de subventions de recherche et de subventions de recherche stratégique provenant de chercheurs d'universités canadiennes. Parmi celles-ci, seulement quatre sur dix (725) ont obtenu un appui financier. Comme dans les années passées, à cause de contraintes budgétaires, le CRSH a été dans l'impossibilité d'appuyer de nombreux projets méritoires qui ont été recommandés par les comités de sélection.

Les demandes de bourses de doctorat et postdoctorales du CRSH sont également évaluées dans le cadre de concours annuels nationaux, de sorte que seulement les étudiants les plus prometteurs et les plus doués reçoivent l'appui du Conseil.

Cette année, 2 948 étudiants canadiens de troisième cycle ont fait une demande de bourse de doctorat au CRSH. Parmi ceux-ci, moins d'un sur cinq (578) a obtenu une bourse.

Un total de 517 demandes de bourses postdoctorales ont été évaluées dans le cadre du concours de 1998-1999, parmi lesquelles une sur quatre (126) a obtenu une bourse postdoctorale — une distinction prestigieuse pour les nouveaux chercheurs du Canada qui sont au début de leur carrière.

HOW SSHRC AWARDS ITS GRANTS

This publication lists new awards granted by the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council during the 1998-99 fiscal year.

SSHRC grants are awarded through an independent and highly competitive adjudication process in which committees of scholarly experts evaluate research proposals and recommend which projects Council should fund. The peer review process forms the cornerstone of a fair and effective system for ensuring that only the best research proposals receive SSHRC funding.

Each year, SSHRC program officers approach close to 8,000 researchers from Canada and other countries around the world to provide written evaluations of individual grant proposals. Their assessments are then submitted to the selection committees to assist them in determining which proposals merit funding.

SSHRC adjudicators and assessors are active researchers with demonstrated experience in their own discipline or area of specialization and solid knowledge of research activity as a whole.

More than 124 scholars meet every year to sit on one of 17 standard and strategic research grant selection committees to evaluate applications submitted in the annual national competitions for SSHRC funding.

This year's selection committees reviewed a total of 1,690 research and strategic grant applications from researchers at Canadian universities. Of those, only four out of ten (i.e. 725) were awarded funding. As in previous years, owing to budgeting constraints, SSHRC was unable to support a number of meritorious projects recommended by the selection committees.

Applications for SSHRC doctoral and postdoctoral fellowships are similarly adjudicated through annual national competitions so that only the most promising and accomplished graduate students receive Council support.

This year 2,948 Canadian graduates applied for a SSHRC doctoral fellowship. Of those, less than one in five (i.e. 578) were granted an award.

A total of 517 applications for postdoctoral fellowships were reviewed in the 1998-99 competition. Of those, one in four (i.e. 126) were granted a postdoctoral fellowship — a prestigious award which assists Canada's newest scholars at the beginning of their research careers.

SSHRC offered universities a Special One-time Grant through the SIG program. These funds were targeted for the purpose of providing research support to assistant professors who are within the first six years of their appointment at that rank and to stimulate increased participation in SSHRC's programs of research support to build further capacity in our fields.

Le CRSH a offert aux universités des subventions ponctuelles spéciales par l'entremise de son Programme de subventions institutionnelles. Le CRSH a engagé des fonds dans cette initiative dans le but d'assurer un appui à la recherche aux professeurs adjoints, qui occupent ces postes depuis six ans ou moins et afin de stimuler une participation accrue aux programmes d'appui à la recherche du CRSH, ce qui aura pour conséquence d'accroître notre expertise dans les domaines qui nous sont propres.
